

August 19

Theodore is wide awake. It's 10:30 and looks as though we've done for a tough night.

← This is not from tonight, but adorable all the same

Aug 19 cont.

Theodore had a big poop.

Things are looking better.

There's beauty in that
slow sleeping river,
there's beauty in that
sundown in the sky

a late night
lullaby

update: He slept well

The takeaway: if he is crying uncontrollably, there is a good reason...
usually gas!
